About The Penn Fund

Established in 1927, The Penn Fund supports the University's mission through both raising dollars and engaging donors to enhance undergraduate life and learning for all students. Gifts that count benefit the highest priorities across the academic, extracurricular, and residential experiences.

Ivy Stone Society (ISS)

Founded in 2007, the Ivy Stone Society (ISS) recognizes Penn undergraduate alumni who make gifts of any amount that count toward The Penn Fund for three or more consecutive years.

Always Donors

This important group recognizes alumni who have selected to set up a recurring gift to The Penn Fund on a monthly, quarterly, or annual basis.

Benjamin Franklin Society (BFS)

Founded in 1955, the Benjamin Franklin Society (BFS) is the University's leadership annual giving society.
